MARK JOHNSON TV/RADIO ANNOUNCER

Mark is in his 22nd year as the "Voice of the Buffs" handling play-by-play duties for all University of Colorado football and basketball broadcasts as well as hosting the Buffaloes Primetime weekly radio and television shows. Previously, Johnson was the Sports Director of Denver radio station, KOA, Newsradio. He also does television and radio work for various national and regional networks in the Rocky Mountain Region and across the country.

In 2015, Mark became the President of the Evergreen Rodeo Association in Evergreen, Colorado serving a one-year term. His involvement in rodeo continues a life-long love of horses and the Western way-of-life. When not working or speaking, Johnson enjoys spending time with his family, team roping, riding his horses and hunting & fly fishing.

Mark and his wife reside in Evergreen, Colorado. He has three adult children and two grandchildren.

Mark's story will be both informative and inspirational.
